Moments make the year

Just a moment ago, the year was still real. Now, it lives only in these pages, as a collection of moments. Some were trivial, like walking in an empty hall or laughing at lunch. Some, like spring at last or a finished assignment or project, were pretty significant.

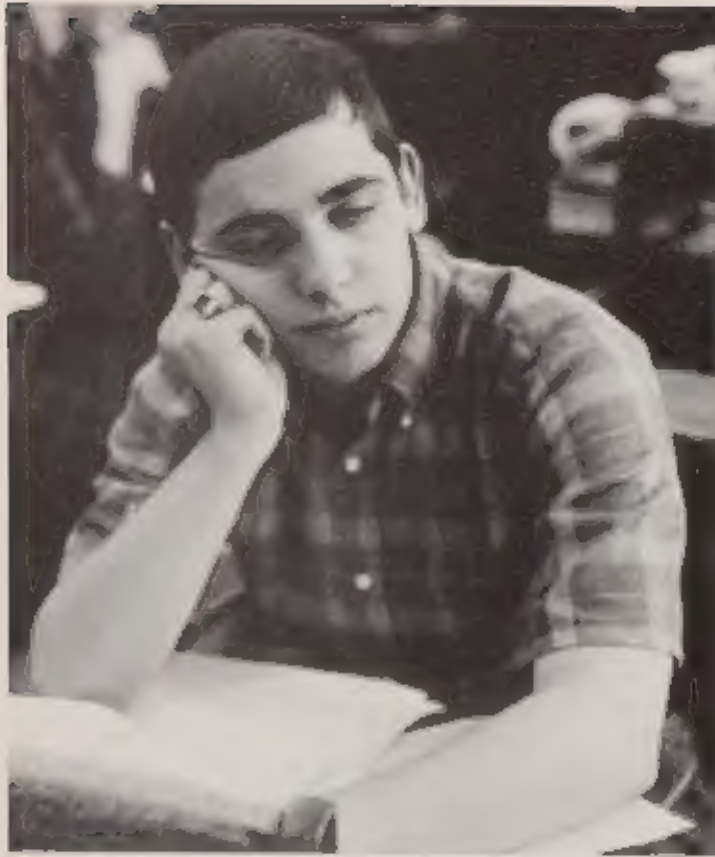

But the real moments, the ones that are remembered for individual reasons by individual persons, hold the memories of an entire year. These are the ones that are so difficult, practically impossible to capture. In the pages of the 1968 QUIPPIAN, you will find the ones that were caught.

FACULTY

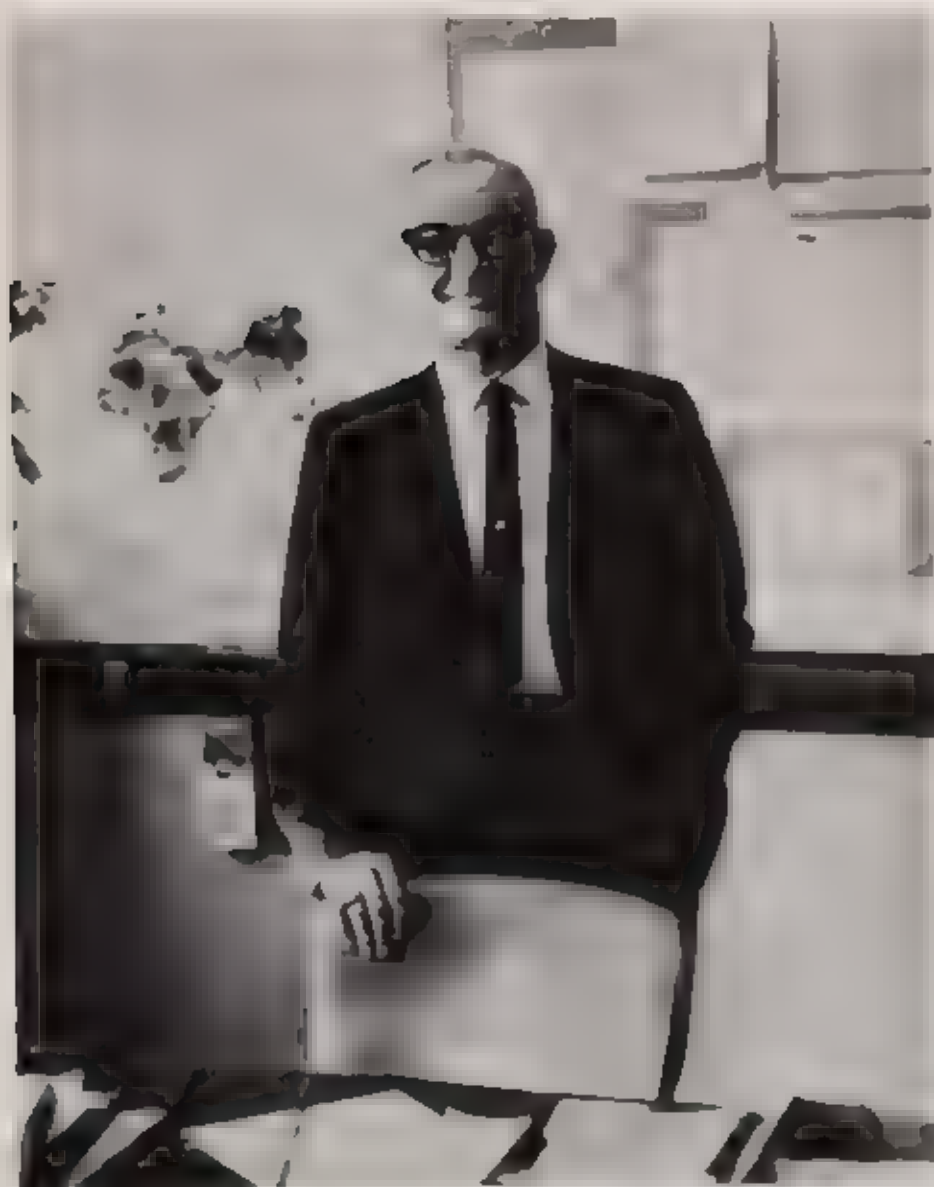

Board of Education

The directors of the Aliquippa School District guide the progress and develop the policies with which they may provide better programs to benefit students. They hold regular monthly meetings and make resolutions to discuss. In attending conferences, they consider new trends and developments to further the promotion of the district. Programs have been initiated with the aid of the Federal Aid Elementary and Secondary Education Act to help low-income families further their child's interest in music and other cultural programs. The board has expanded the resources of library and summer programs to provide recreation for students.

One of the most important items in all teachers lesson plans are Audio-Visual Aids. Mr. Tatalovich is the man responsible for the handling of all the films. He orders them from the instructional films center financed jointly by the Beaver County school districts. While keeping all kinds of projectors in top shape, he still finds time to instruct teachers and students the proper way to use them

Caroline H. Thel
Department Chairman, English IV

Because of the interest of the AHS teachers, there has been a broad English curriculum. Films and recordings help the students understand the literary selections which are brought about by periods in history. Most seniors hate the thought of doing investigative themes, but they learn to compile, generalize and put their thoughts into words. We conclude that not only do students read literature and learn grammar, but they learn to express themselves in book reports, research papers, and themes. Students in the Creative Writing class prepare the school's literary magazine, the Quill, in which the students have a chance to publish their original work.

The history of many nations, including our own, is taught in history classes at AHS. Students realize the mistakes in history and wonder how the outcome would be if the decisions were changed. They also try to apply this knowledge in their everyday life, and understand their responsibilities as well as rights, so, as they proceed through life they will have an open mind on sociological and economic issues.

Edward C. Tracy
Vocational Carpentry, Wood Shop III

For those interested in seeking careers in industry, AHS offers electrical, auto-mechanics, carpentry and machine shops to further their skills. Not only do electric shop boys learn how to wire, but they learn principle skills of electricity. In the carpentry shop the boys learn practical skills pertaining to the construction of houses and household articles. The machine shop teaches boys how to operate drills, milling machines, lathes and shapers. Auto mechanics learned the innovations of engines and entered in the Plymouth "Trouble-Shooting Contest." These studies occupy half the day of a shop student, the rest is spent in academic classes.

New additions to AHS Band

Rich Estok and Dave Miller model front and back views of their new uniforms

Besides being the best sounding and marching band around, the "Quip" band is also the best looking. The long awaited uniforms finally arrived this year and made a great improvement for the band.

The band began practicing this summer by attending band camp for one week, which prepared them for the coming football season. Perhaps the highlight of the football season was the Aliquippa—Hopewell game, where the new uniforms were worn for the first time. As a dedication of the uniforms the band played "The Overture of 1812" featuring a fireworks display.

Other activities for the "Quip" band included parades, a band festival, and a Parents' Night Program. The band also participated in the school musical "My Fair Lady."

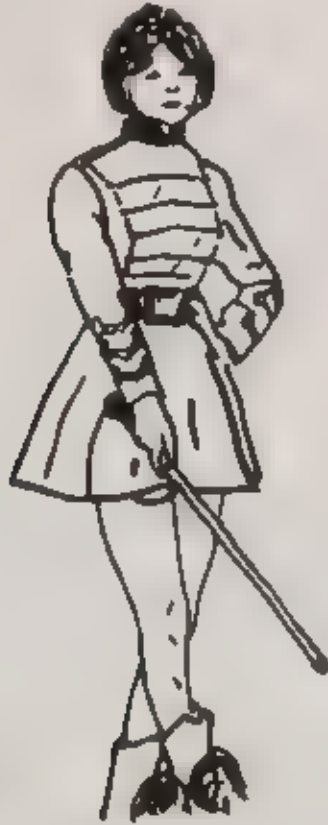

The Annual Spring Concert, held in April presented a varied repertoire also featuring individual performers. The many hours of practice and hard work helped to make the concert a great success.

The pep band, a selected group, played at pep assemblies and at basketball games. This hard working group contributed their efforts and played an active part in "school spirit" at Aliquippa High

A total of ninety-one members combined to form the AHS Bach Choir. Their purpose, to promote good music in the school and the community, was achieved by the many programs they participated in. Besides presenting the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, the choir also added something special to the National Honor Society induction. The highlight of the year was the Broadway musical—My Fair Lady. The Bach Choir spent many hours of rehearsing in the evenings and on weekends to make the production a big success.

The motto TOWARD NEW HORIZONS provided a factual goal for the forty-six members of the Future Homemakers of America who sought to fulfill the FHA purpose of helping "individuals improve personal, family and community living now and in the future."

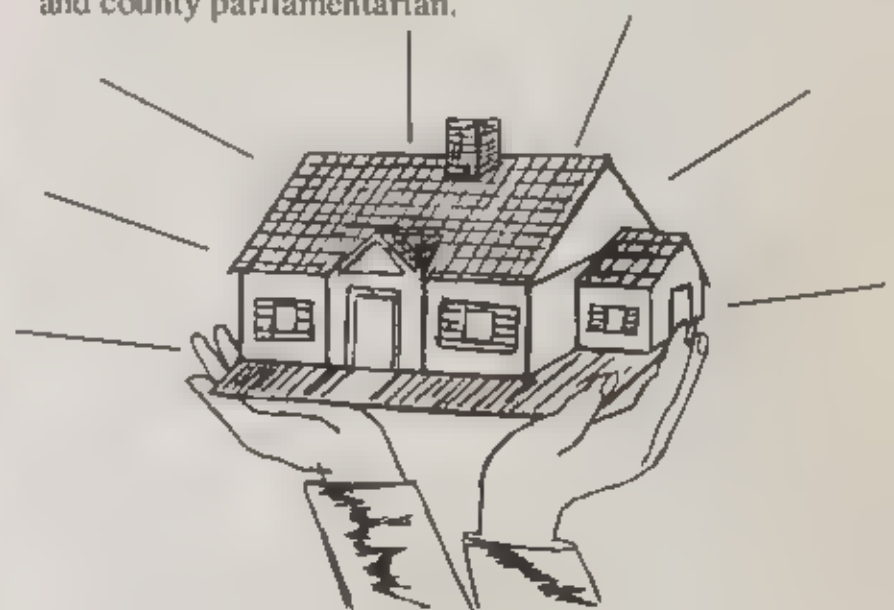

In conjunction with this the club launched a schedule of activities which included a hayride, trips to colleges, shopping trips and a style show in cooperation with local stores.

Highlighting the year's program was the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet and the formal initiation of new members.

Officers for the year were as follows: Joy Carter, president; Donna Baker, vice-president; Mary Ann Yanko, secretary; Betty Hall, treasurer; Alice Woodward, county vice-president; and Thelma MacLaughlin, local and county parliamentarian.

With 273 members the Conservation, Fishing, and Hunting Club was constantly active. Some highlights of the year were the Hunter-Safety classes; stream improvement project along Big Traverse Creek in Raccoon Creek State Park and sharing work experiences and lunch with the boys at the Youth Forestry Camp, on two Saturday afternoons. The club also participated in the J & L Appreciation Day and the Eleventh Annual Senior-Parents Dinner.

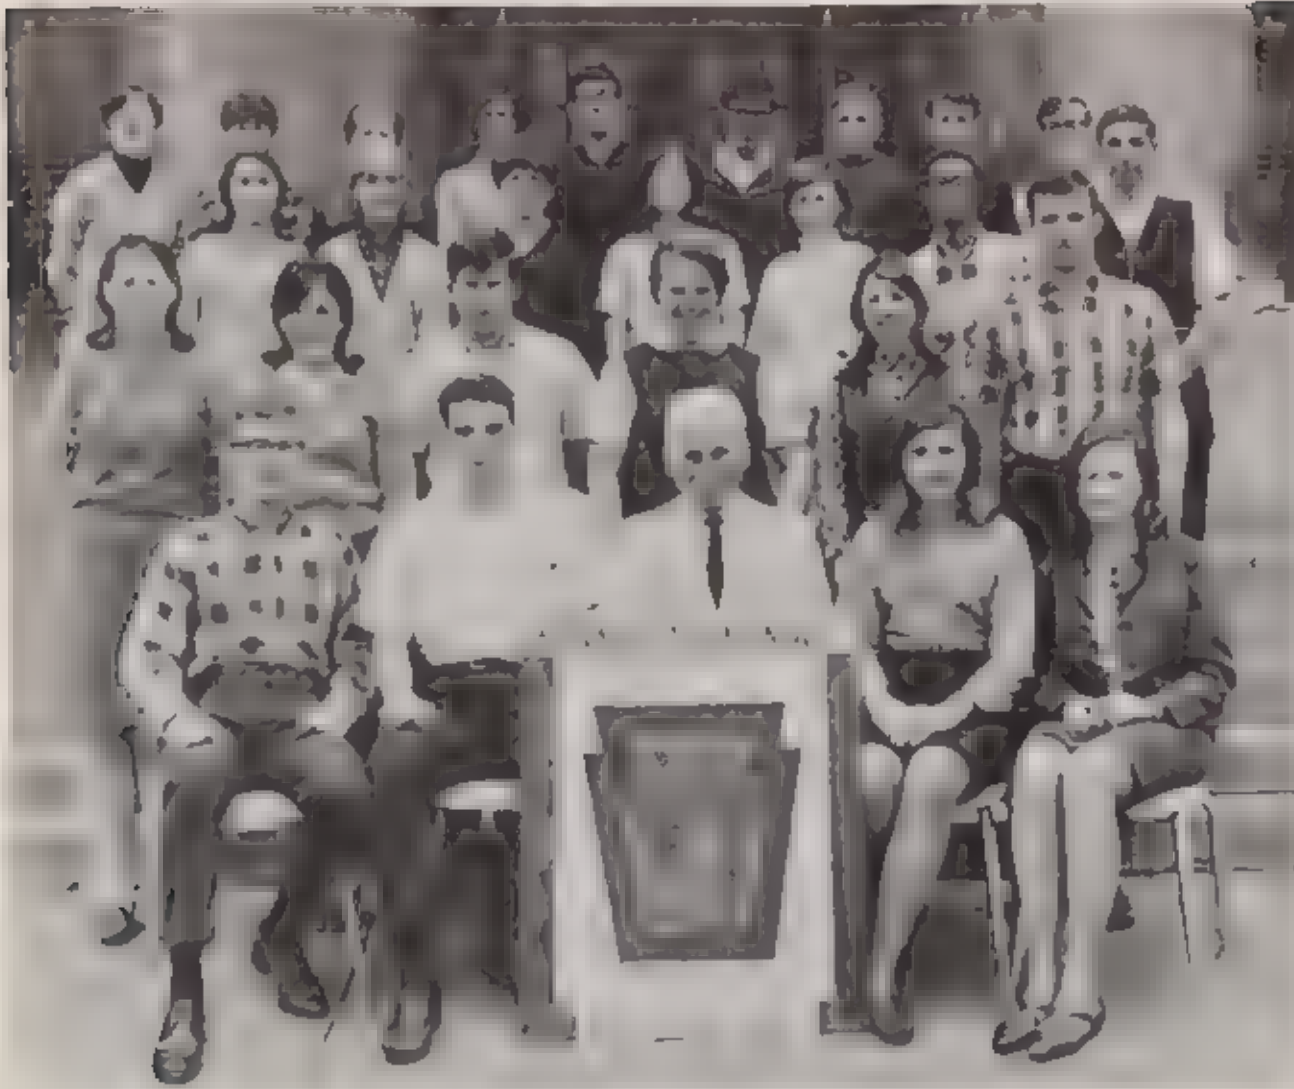

Some of the club's fund raising projects were the sale of Christmas Trees and Easter Eggs and the making of tray favors donated to the Aliquippa Hospital for Thanksgiving and Christmas. The CF&H also sponsored various social functions including the Halloween and Christmas parties. The year's activities were concluded with the ice skating party at North Park.

Aliquippa's CF&H is the oldest club of its kind in the United States, celebrating its Thirtieth Anniversary this year. Mr. Blaney, sponsor, is a member of 38 various civic and religious organizations.

Members of the Varsity Club must participate in a varsity sport such as football, basketball, baseball, track, volleyball, or golf. To receive a jacket each boy must be a letterman in football or basketball, or a three-year player in any of the other sports.

The Varsity Club operated the concession stands during the basketball season. It also sponsored several socials after the football and basketball games.

Quips Post 1-8 Season

The 1967 Aliquippa High School football squad won only one game but gave the fans many exciting and thrilling moments which will never be forgotten.

In the season opener against Central Catholic, one wrong move cost Aliquippa the game. Al Raines dropped the ball for Aliquippa's only backfield error of the evening and Stan Baran scooped it up and raced 25 yards for a Central Catholic touchdown to break the six-six tie and win the game.

Next week the Quips met Farrell and played a fine game though they trailed for the entire game. The Quips rallied in the fourth quarter, scoring a touchdown with six minutes remaining but were unable to get a winning score.

The following week the Quips played host to Sharon and lost by only one point. Rodney Jones scored Aliquippa's only touchdown of the game taking a hand-off from Mayconich and going all the way from the Quips 47 for a 53 yard scoring jaunt.

Fumbles, dropped passes, penalties, and a bad pass from center were the key ingredients in a wild and wooly game between Ellwood City and Aliquippa. The Quips chalked up their only score to take an early lead when Ralph Norman and Ben Tyson caught Al Wilson in the end zone. Unfortunately Ellwood came back, getting two touchdowns to win 14-2.

The Quips fell as the fifth victims of the unbeaten WPIAL champions, the New Castle Hurricanes. New Castle has complete control of the game and had a 48-13 lead as the final seconds ticked away.

Some fans regarded the Hopewell game as the contest that the Quips were edged out of on an officiating call. A touchdown scored by Rod Jones which would have tied or possibly won the game was called back because of a penalty of holding the facemask and the Quips lost 6-0.

The following week the Quips traveled to Butler to suffer a 46-19 defeat, but made a good showing scoring one touchdown in the second quarter and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

The Beaver Falls game was best described by the Beaver County Times headline, "When it 'Raines' It Pours". Al Raines kept the Quips in the game against the heavily-favored Tigers by running back two touchdowns on the kickoffs and throwing the third touchdown pass to sophomore quarterback Gary Rosatelli. The Quips valiant effort was beaten back by a fourth quarter effort which gave the Tigers a seven point lead to win by a score of 27-20.

The Quips ended their season in fine fashion by defeating their arch-rivals, Ambridge High 13-6. It all began when Al Raines intercepted a Bridger pass and went down the sidelines for a touchdown. Raines also scored another touchdown on an end run from the Bridger's 15 yard-line. The Bridgers attempted several razzle-dazzle plays in the fourth quarter in an attempt to save the game but were stopped by the Quips after scoring only one touchdown.

The 1968 Quip basketball squad performed superbly throughout the entire season and missed winning the section by only one point. The team was placed by three senior lettermen, Charles Pipkin, Leroy Bowie, and Sam Milanovich. Finishing second in a strong section their games were always thrilling right down to the wire. Completing the season with an 18-5 overall record the Quips senior lettermen were aided by junior standouts Dwight Kenner, Jessie Stewart, John Marzlak, Bob Sellari, and George Suder

The "Darkhorse" finishes second

Opening the season on the wrong foot, the Quips dropped their opener to Duquesne by a score of 56-47. Tightening up their defense and coordinating their offense the Quips won the next four contests against Gateway, McKeesport, Ford City, and Penn Hills. Riding on a wave of recent victories the Quips were returned to reality when they lost the East Liverpool game by a score of 57-49. Completing their pre-season schedule by defeating South Hills Catholic 71-58, the Quips were once more in the groove. The Quips remained in the groove for 13 consecutive wins and were number one most of the season.

The Quips opened league play against Ellwood City in a game which was close for the first two quarters, but was clearly dominated by the Quips during the second half for a 71-58 win. During the first half of play the Quips won two "squeakers," one against Beaver Falls 51-49 and the other against Sharon in a last minute score of 70-68. In the probation game between the Quips and the Bridgers the Indians completely dominated the game which was witnessed by only Aliquippa students.

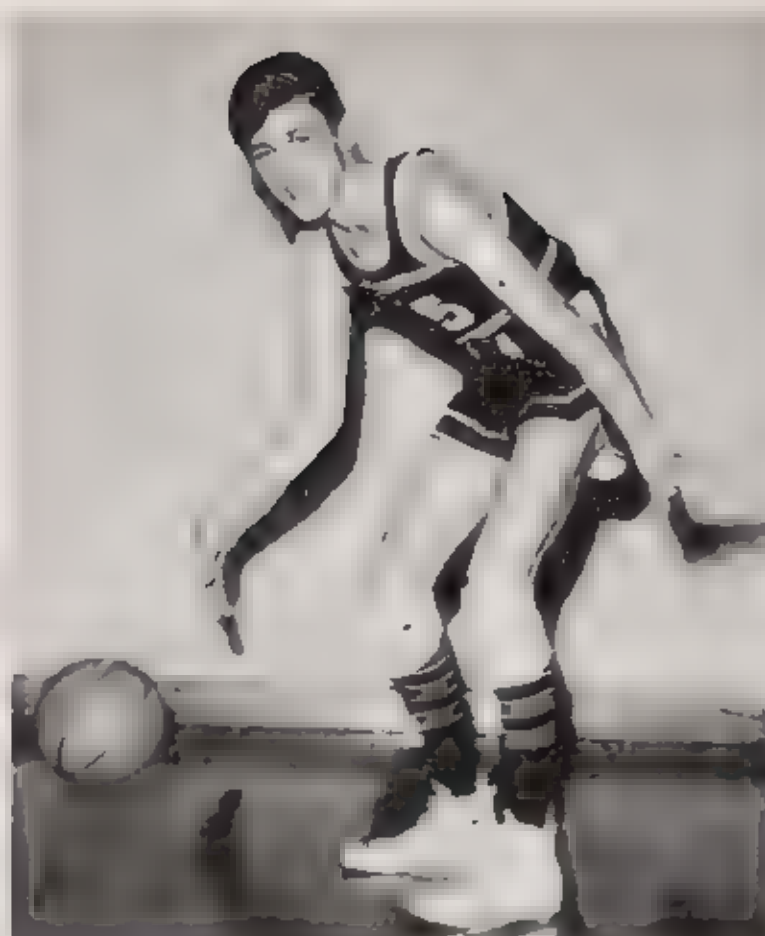

Taking time out for an exhibition game with West Mifflin North, the Aliquippa squad defeated them by a score of 65-47. The chant of "we're no. 1" now echoed through the halls of Aliquippa High School almost incessantly. Starting the second half of play the Quips downed Ellwood City without too much difficulty by a ten-point margin. The next game with New Castle was one in which the Quips barely inched passed their opponents in the closing seconds of the game winning 58-55. The Quips didn't have too much of a problem with Beaver Falls or Sharon but at Farrell everything fell apart. At Farrell the team's timing seemed to be off and so did their shooting. The "glass lid" over the bucket kept the Quips' from scoring more than 46 while Farrell scored 62. The next game the Quips trounced Butler by a score of 90-45. In the crucial game with Ambridge, the Bridgers and Quips battled evenly to the wire, but with just a few seconds left Matka made a "Cherrypicker" (easy shot) to win the game for Ambridge 66-68 and create a tie for the top spot in Section III.

In the playoff at the Pitt Fieldhouse the Quips put out a tremendous effort but lost by one point. This was a tough loss for the team and student body. Farrell lost in the same manner the next week in the playoffs. It wasn't much consolation for the Quips.

1967 Quip batsmen finish 4-8 season

GEORGE DANOVIK—Coach

The Quip baseball team in the third year under coach George Danovich posted a 4-8 record in Section V of WPIAL competition.

In the season opener against Beaver Falls at Beaver Falls the lack of Quip hitting with the help of six Quip errors gave the Fallsmen an easy 5-1 victory. In the Quips' second game, Coach Danovich's charges dropped an 8 inning squeaker to Hopewell, 3-2. Tough pitching on the part of Rich Zikovich helped the Vikings to even their record and set the Quips back with 2 losses.

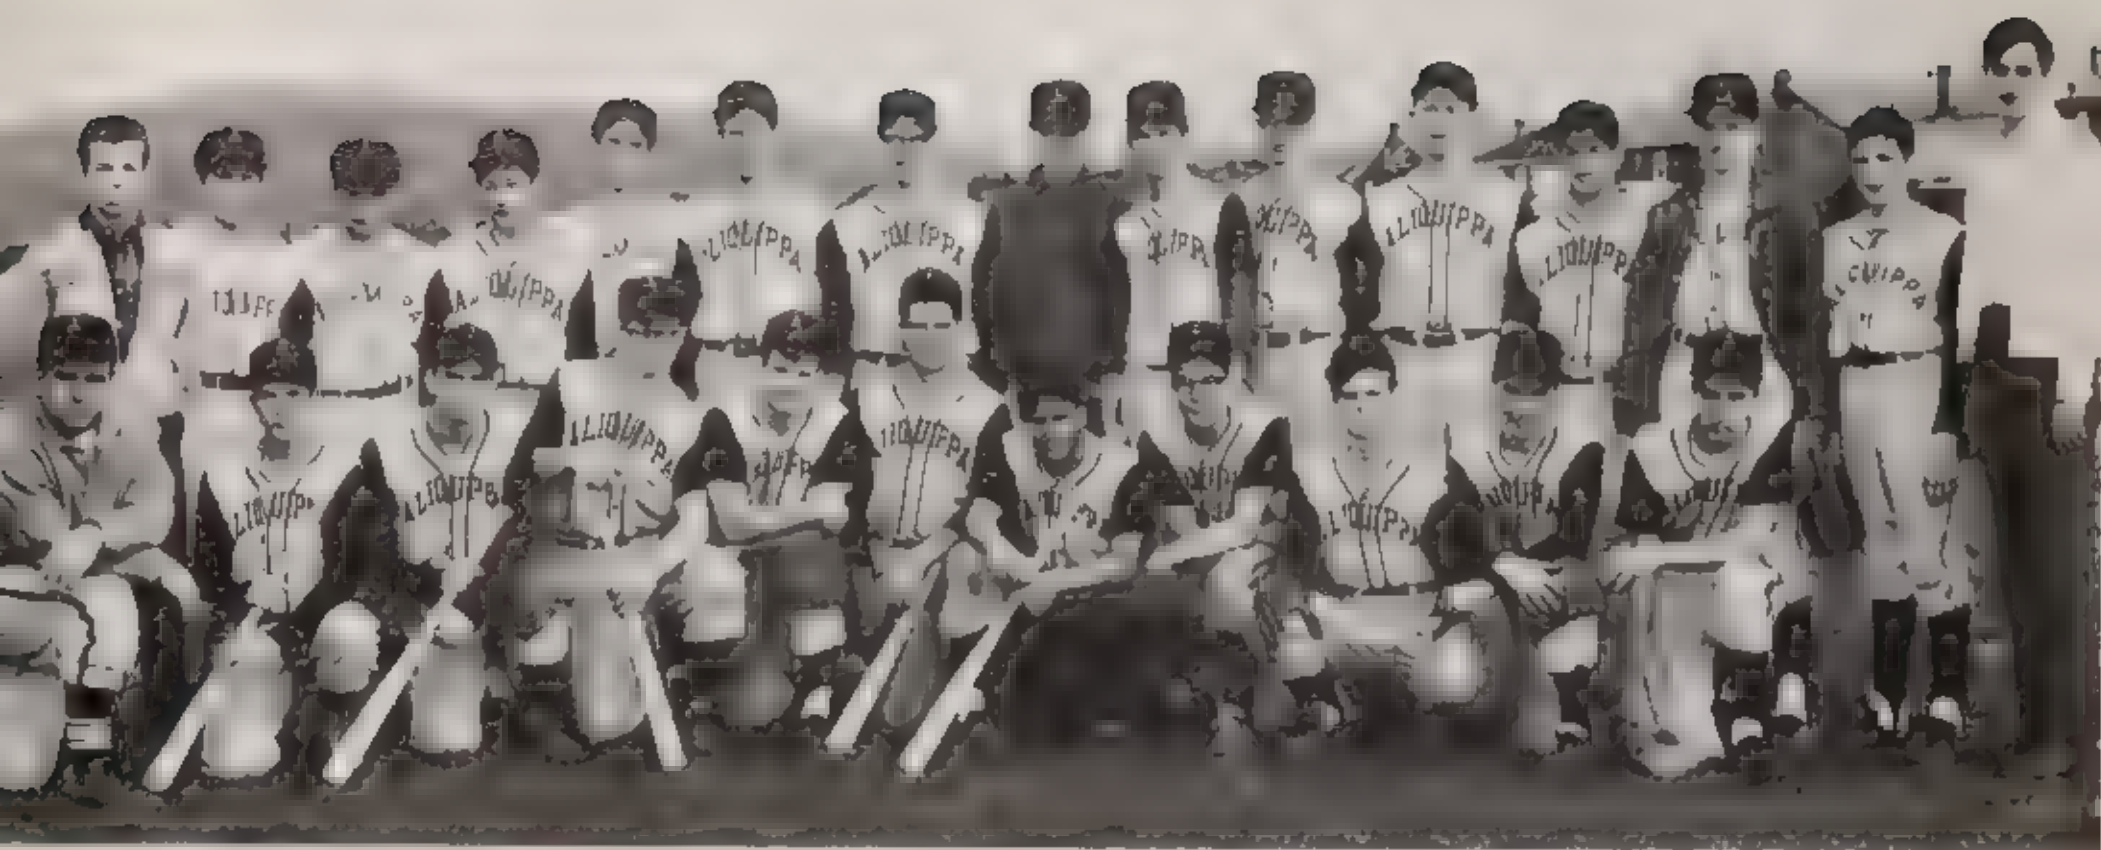

With two straight setbacks the Quips took to the road and this time the luck of the Quips changed. Getting good hitting from Bob Stuscak and Paul DeFilippi and strong pitching from Mark Fouse, the Quips upended New Brighton 6-3. The next game for the Quips was against their rival, Ambridge. The Bridgers posed no threat to the Quips who walked away with an easy 7-0 victory.

In their next four contests Aliquippa did an about-face, losing to Freedom, Beaver, Beaver Falls and Hopewell.

To round out their season the Quips split their last four games, losing to Freedom and Beaver, stopping New Brighton and arch-rival Ambridge.

Senior performers for the 1967 season were Bob Stuscak, Paul DeFilippi, Ron Corsi, Chuck Reszetylo and Tom Mandity. Juniors Mark Fouse, Tom Mayconich, Greg Gula and Trivan Milanovich are expected to form the nucleus of the 1968 squad.

Cross Country Men Post 1-10 season

JAMES BATCHELOR—Coach

The Aliquippa Cross Country team completed the season with a 1-10 slate in 1967. The team defeated Freedom for their only win. Eugene Cosby was the Quip standout this year, as he placed seven first-place and two second-place standings. Mr. Batchelor is expecting a stronger team next year spear-headed by James Kolenda and Ed Canning.

The intramural basketball games started league play this year in early December and consisted of two rounds. The games were played in the senior high gymnasium after school.

The "Celtics" captained by Scott Baker won the first round and "Shoepackers" captained by Al Raines won the second round. Meeting in a play off the Celtics won by only one point. In a meeting between Jr. Division Champions the "Hillboys" and the "Silencers" the Silencers came out on top.

The end of the intramural season was highlighted by an "All Star Intramural Game" played in front of the school as an assembly. Members of the teams were voted by their fellow teammates and the "Black" team was victorious over the "Red."

Intramural Sponsor

A very active program was carried out in the girls' physical education classes, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Carver. Besides the usual softball, volleyball, basketball, Indian club and wand routines, the girls were taught a new method of exercising called "rhythmics." Tumbling and apparatus work were featured in the Spring. Marching and exercises were part of the daily gym class agenda.

Girls gym classes always began with the familiar voice of Mrs Elizabeth Carver ordering girls to line up for roll call and to fall in, tallest to smallest. After a series of right, left, and about faces, a "forward march" begins the orderly walk around the gym. After lines were formed a variety of calisthenics, including the booter, liver-squeezer, sit-ups and others were performed. A quick breath-taking run in place came next and then began the usual games. Indian club and Wand drills were part of the fall program. Volley ball and basketball filled the Winter class periods, and Tumbling and Apparatus concluded the year

AHS girls participate in intramurals

Mrs. Carver gives intramural volleyball teams last minute pointers.

For those girls who didn't have enough athletics during gym, there were always after school intramural games. Sophomore, junior, and senior girls participated in after school basketball and volleyball games. In the volleyball division there were four teams in each grade. All teams played seven games. The champions were: of seniors, "The Groovers," captained by Vernadine Dixon; of juniors, "The Kitty Hawks," captained by Kitty Hughy; and of sophomores, "The Quips," captained by Sonya Chaifa. In early March, the winners of the basketball division had not yet been decided. There were four teams for each grade in basketball. Also, the highlight of the basketball season was the traditional Army vs. Navy Game held late in March.

Report Cards, pep assemblies, athletic events, club initiations, failures, successes, and lasting friendships are all moments to remember. These moments have helped us to grow from anxious and timid sophomores to young adults prepared to accept the challenge of the future.

As sophomores we remember our first pep assembly outside in the stadium and the construction of the library and cafeteria. We also remember trying to match teachers' names with faces and room numbers with teachers.

As juniors we became more familiar with AHS and joined in extra-curricular activities, sports and clubs. We no longer felt self-conscious and awkward, instead we felt as if we belonged.

Our final year at AHS has been filled with many moments—some trying and difficult, others eventful and satisfying. We awaited commencement knowing that the moments that shaped the past will also shape the future. We can look back on these three years with a feeling of pride and accomplishment and at the same time look to the future with confidence and expectation.

David Kreisberg and Lois Stenger exchange thoughts concerning graduation, the most important moment of one's high school career.

LOUIS DIDONATO

Seeing Debbie Colangelo and Anna Marie Fermo pause at the lockers during change of classes brings back memories of when lockers were large, roomy and decorative

The solving of a difficult Trig problem took the combined efforts of Robert MacFarland and Jeanne Zanath

GERALD VALE

In Memoriam

Carol Moskala 1950-1967

Carol Moskala will not take that long and nervous walk to receive her diploma nor can she experience the hopes and tears we feel on this the eve of our graduation. She never experienced the work, fun and pride that goes with one's senior year, nor will she ever. Carol died in her junior year, but she is as much a part of this graduating class as anyone of us. In a school and a class as large as our own there were some who may not have known Carol well and others who did not know her at all. For those who did not know her it is enough to remember that a fellow classmate died and was lost as a possible friend. For those who did know Carol she remains as fresh as all the memories of our high school careers. But, the memory will not fade away as do those of the tests, proms, report cards and problems of high school days. These memories mean little in the long run however important they may have seemed prior to graduation. The memory of a person whose life has touched ours can never fade, can never be lost, but forever lives in the experiences shared, the moments of companionship and trust, joy and sorrow, work and play. No, Carol can not step into the future as we are about to do, but we can not take that step without pausing to reflect on the past and what she meant to us. And even in the future we will at times stop for a moment to remember and in this way Carol will never really die, but lives on in us as we live shaped in some way by having known her.

SENIOR HOMEROOM TEACHERS Standing Mr. Andrew Steranka, Mr. Nick Lram Mr. Joseph DeNone, Mr. William Bena, Mr Joseph Ross. Seated: Mrs. Ivagean Ferry, Mrs. Sarah Whitehead, Mr. Lawience Blaney, Miss Bell Adams, Miss Ann Halama
